

Chocolate contest participation, 2021–2026

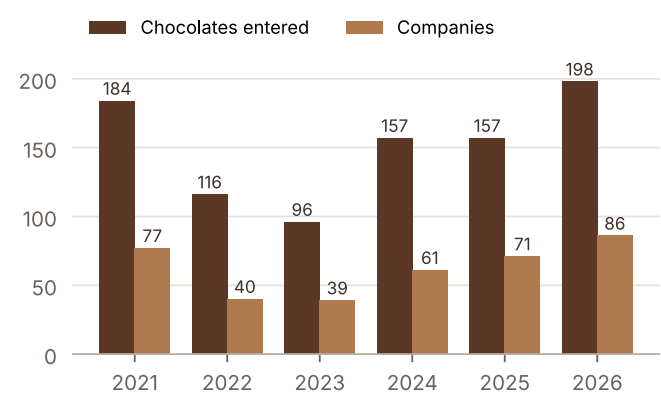

The 2026 edition was the largest so far: 198 chocolates from 86 companies in 19 countries, with a record 33 returning companies. Over six editions the contest has received 908 chocolates from 275 companies in 40 countries.

Growth and loyalty

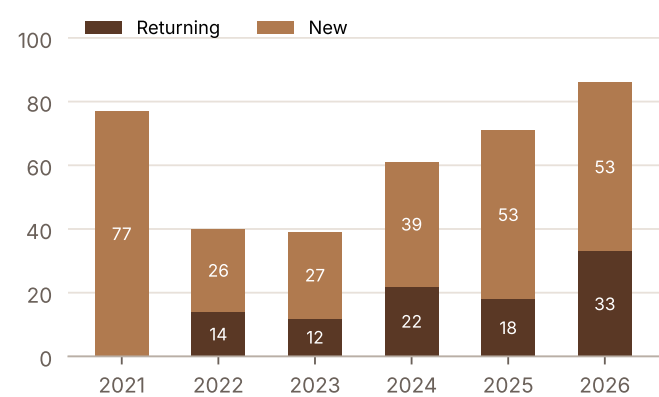

Chocolates and companies per edition

Each chocolate entered counts once; a company counts once per year.

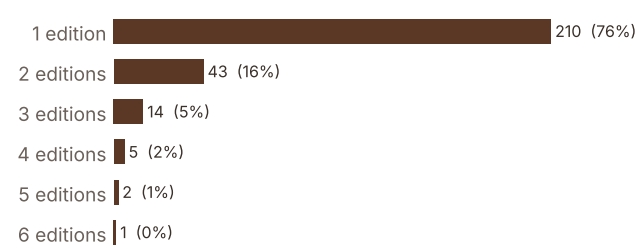

New and returning companies

Returning = took part in an earlier edition (matched by company name).

How many editions companies join

Different companies by number of editions entered, out of 6.

Most loyal participants

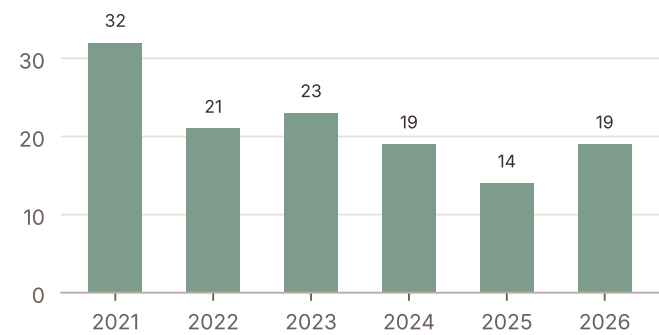

Companies present in 4 or more editions.

Company	Country	Editions	Years
Mayak Chocolate	Honduras	6	2021 · 2022 · 2023 · 2024 · 2025 · 2026
Asociación de Productores del VRAE Pueblo Libre Baja	Peru	5	2022 · 2023 · 2024 · 2025 · 2026
Cooperativa Agraria Cafetalera Pangoa Ltda	Peru	5	2021 · 2023 · 2024 · 2025 · 2026
Ayitika	Haiti	4	2023 · 2024 · 2025 · 2026
Cacahua Alimento de los Dioses, C.A.	Venezuela	4	2021 · 2022 · 2024 · 2026
Corporación Barberis Chocolatería Artesanal SAC	Peru	4	2021 · 2022 · 2023 · 2024
Kad Kokoa Co., Ltd.	Thailand	4	2021 · 2022 · 2023 · 2024
Sijj Chocolate Ancestral S.A.S.	Mexico	4	2021 · 2022 · 2023 · 2024

International reach

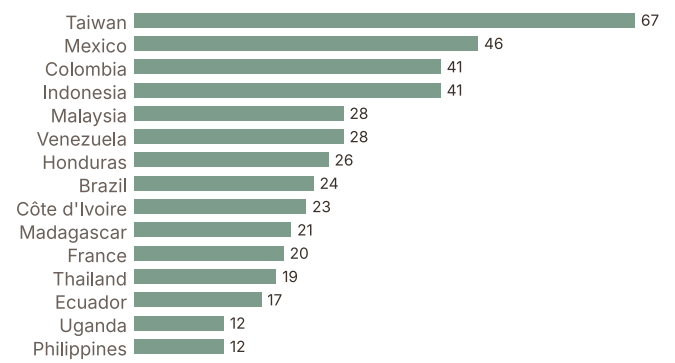

Countries represented each year

Country of the participating company (2023: where the chocolate was made).

Leading countries, 2021-2026

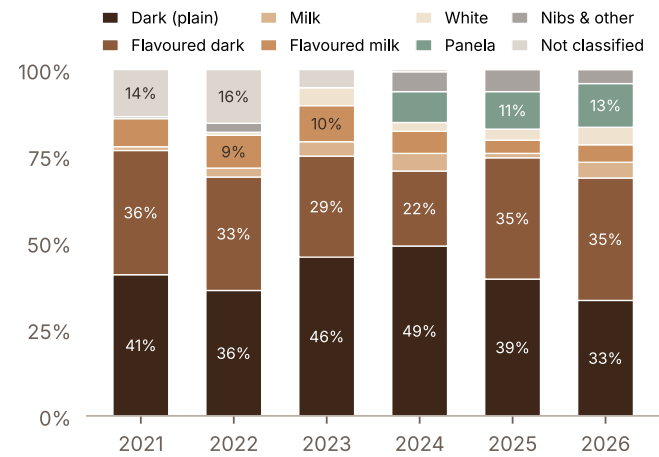

Chocolates entered over six editions, top 15. Peru, the largest delegation every year, is left out so the other countries can be compared.

What was entered and awarded

Chocolate types by edition

Share of entries per family. Panela categories start in 2024.

Medals per edition

Gourmet Gold, Silver, Bronze and Diploma; the figure above each bar is the share of entries awarded.

